The Character Council of Central Oklahoma (CCOCO) seeks to strengthen our community by growing character in all segments of society. We are actively encouraging integrity in the sectors of Education, Family, Faith, Business, Government, Law Enforcement, and Communications.

YOUR DONATIONS SUPPORT:

- CHARACTER BANQUET ON SEPTEMBER 4, 2008, 6:00 PM
at the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum that will honor those who are effectively implementing character programs in their sphere of influence
- ZOORIFIC DAY OF CHARACTER ON SEPTEMBER 20, 2008
with games, character-related animal tales, and a scavenger hunt—a great day of family fun and learning your whole family will remember—time: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
- OKLAHOMA COUNTY JAIL CHARACTER PROGRAM that transforms the lives of officers and inmates and lowers facility abuse costs
- WRITING CONTEST FOR OKLAHOMA STUDENTS
honoring each with a certificate signed by his/her Representative, Senator, and Principal, and awarding U.S. savings bonds to the winners in each age category
- DESIGN OF CHARACTER FIRST! EDUCATION INITIATIVES
for elementary, secondary, and post-secondary institutions, and upon implementation, each is designated a Campus of Character. Each Campus of Character and other schools who have expressed an interest in an Initiative are invited to send representatives to an annual Summer Sharing Seminar that provides an opportunity to network successes and challenges and to learn new ideas.
- HONORING OUTSTANDING TEACHERS OF CHARACTER FIRST! EDUCATION.
You may honor a teacher with a nomination at <http://www.characterok.org/teachers/>. We look forward to receiving your applications.
- HEALTHY FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS
by creating attractive radio and print tools that will strengthen communication between parents and their children concerning “sticky” situations; and by selecting and honoring a family of character at the State Capitol’s Family Day
- ETHICS EDUCATION FOR LEGAL AND ACCOUNTING PROFESSIONALS
- SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CHARACTER FIRST INTERNS
who serve Representatives in the Oklahoma Legislature, and assist schools and teachers who implement Character First
- STRONG CHURCHES
By reviving families and rebuilding communities through the use of Character Family Seminars and materials that will lay strong foundations for the leaders of tomorrow
